Re: 037-11899-00073
Revocation of SSOA 037-5862-00072

Dear Mr. Gress:

During the application review of the Federally Enforceable Operating Permit (FESOP) of Kitchen Jewels, Inc., which was submitted on October 18, 1999, it was indicated by the company that they did not apply for a Source Specific Operating Agreement (SSOA) and therefore will not comply with the requirements of the SSOA 037-5862-00072, issued on October 1, 1999.

On May 10, 1996, Kitchen Jewels, Inc. submitted a transition application to fulfill the operating permit program requirements while some operating rules are not in effect. This transition application means that the company is subject to the Title V operating program; did not want to take a limit under the FESOP program; and was interested in the pending operating programs for specific sources such as woodworking, surface coating, and combustion.

Since the Office of Air Management (OAM) database did not show any other operating permit application submitted from the company, and the rules that the company indicated to be interested in have been finalized, the OAM has reviewed this transition application, and drafted the SSOA. Before the SSOA was issued on October 1, 1999, the company was billed for a SSOA fee and paid the fee on September 27, 1999.

Since the SSOA is not necessary, and the company has applied for a FESOP, SSOA 037-5862-00072 is hereby revoked.

If you have any questions regarding this revocation, please contact Ms. Iryn Calilung of my staff at 317/233-5692 or icalilun@dem.state.in.us
